DEDICATION

The 1982-83 Verbum Dei High School Yearbook staff would like to dedicate this issue of the yearbook to Miss Rebecca Raisola. Miss Raisola has been "running" our school skillfully for over 20 years. In that space of time she has been the administrative assistant to three principals and she has been the friend of hundreds of young men. Her careful and deft handling of numerous jobs, problems, and events has been outstanding. Miss Raisola has been there to assist teachers, pass out aspirin to an ailing freshman, or to calm a busy principal. Every large machine needs all its parts to continue working; without Rebecca Raisola the "Verb" would run out of gas and cease to work.

Miss Raisola, the students, faculty, and administration of Verbum Dei wish to extend to you our heartfelt thanks and continued success! We are honored to dedicate the '82-'83 yearbook to you.

Rebecca Raisola

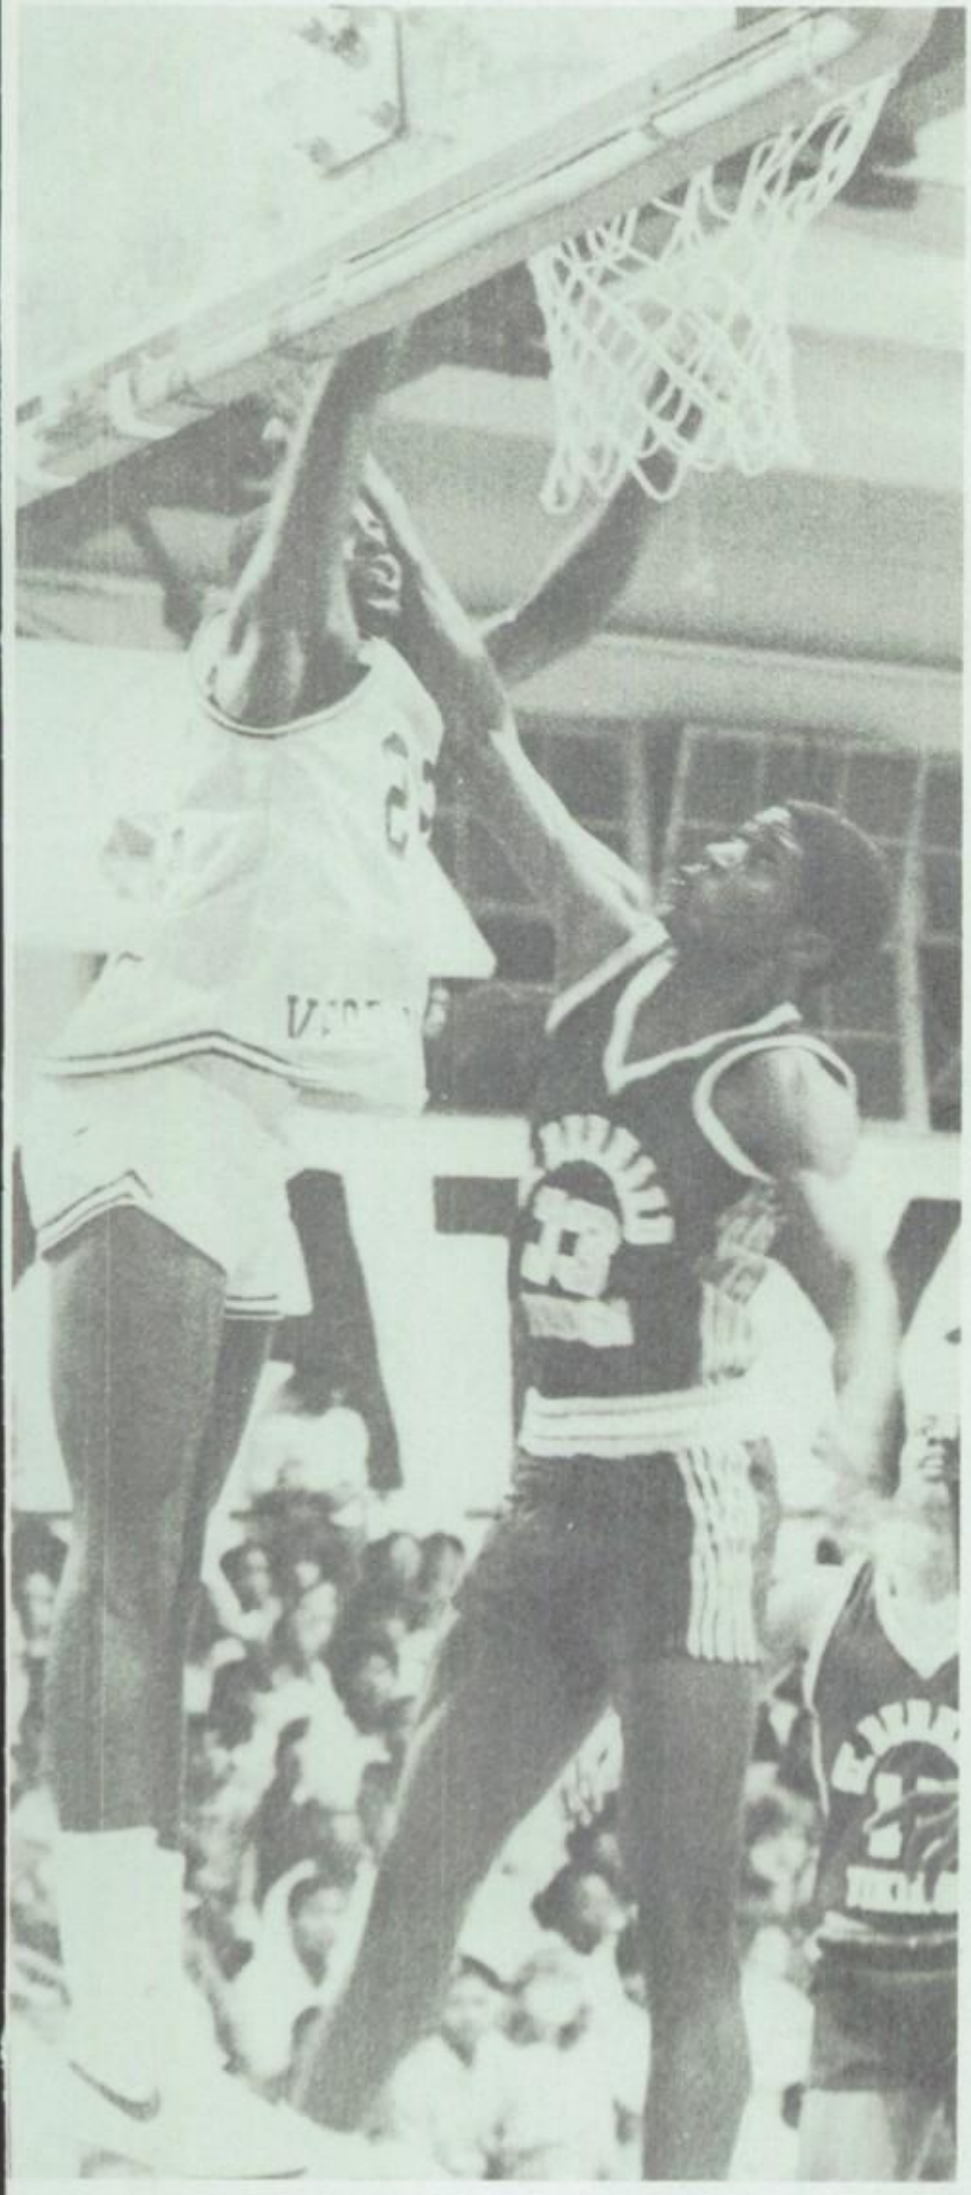
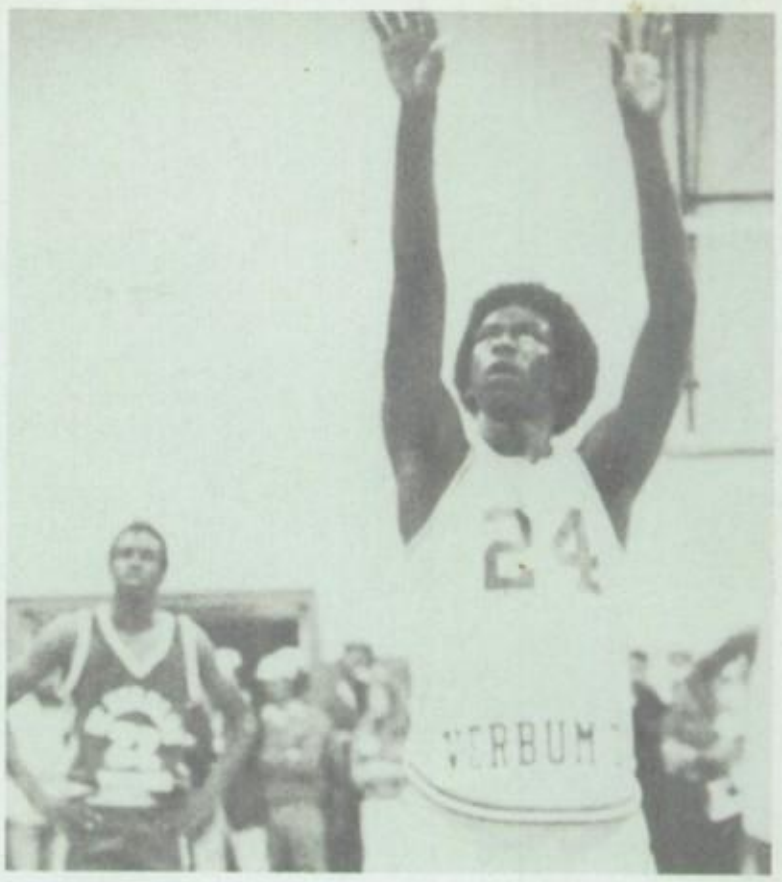
EAGLES!

VERBUM DEI!

If these pictures are a little blurry it's either because Mr. Gutekanst did not focus the camera again or maybe it's because the Eagles move that ball around so fast no camera can catch the action.





The Verbum Dei Varsity Eagles soar to victory!

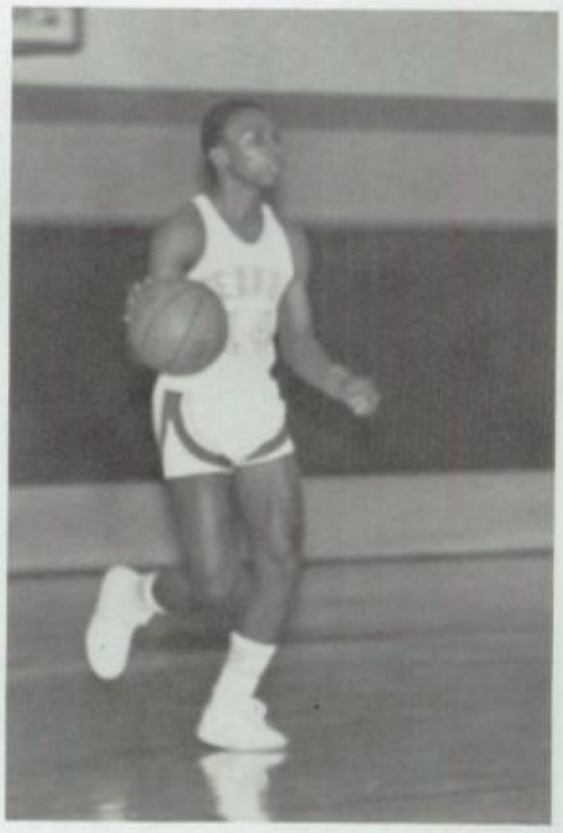
JV BASKETBALL



The Junior Varsity Basketball team had a very successful season. In these JV Eagle shots, various junior players show their stuff.

The "JV" Eagles love to show the Vikings of St. Bernard how to play the game of basketball.

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL

FOOTBALL BANQUET

Championship Eagles enjoy a tremendous meal.

Once again the Verbum Dei Eagles took CIF. And once again we celebrated aboard the luxurious Queen Mary. Delicious food, speeches, and a truck load of trophies and awards made up the terrific evening.

The jurors contemplate the vote which is split— half are for acquittal, the rest say the kid is guilty.

For the first time in over fifteen years Verbum Dei High School students presented a dramatic production, Twelve Angry Men. Over a dozen students, under the guidance of Fr. Steve Nejasmich (what?), Sr. Vincella Lake, and Mr. Dan Gutekanst worked for over two months practicing lines and building a stage for the performances.

The play was attended by hundreds of fans and friends of Verbum Dei. Judging by their enthusiasm, Verbum Dei Theatre will return next year. And then, who knows, Broadway??

This year several Verbum Dei students became involved in the local MESA Programs. Under the inspiration of Sister Pat Peach, students from all classes were able to attend various classes in mathematics, chemistry, and physics. Also students were involved in the "Oil Derrick Competition". Left, we see David Thomas, Bruce Frank, Mike Osborn, Tyrone Davis, and Troy Jackson with their derrick make of toothpicks. Above, Verbum Dei students are congratulated for having the strongest derrick in the competition!
